HUMAN RIGHTS AND DIVERSITY COMMISSION ACCEPTING NOMINATIONS FOR HUMAN RIGHTS AWARDS

Eden Prairie, Minn. — The City of Eden Prairie’s Human Rights and Diversity Commission is now accepting nominations for the annual Human Rights Awards, which recognize inspiring efforts that work to promote human rights and diversity, and to create an inclusive community spirit. Awards are given to an outstanding individual, a non-profit organization and a business.

This year’s award recipients will be selected by the Human Rights and Diversity Commission in March, with an award presentation and recognition at a City Council meeting in April.

Individuals who know of a deserving person, non-profit organization or business are encouraged to pick up a nomination packet at the Eden Prairie City Center (8080 Mitchell Road) or visit edenprairie.org to download it. The deadline for nominations, with supporting materials, is 4:30 p.m. on Friday, Feb. 25, 2011.

Contact Molly Koivumaki at 952-949-8439 or visit edenprairie.org for additional information.

The City of Eden Prairie is a vibrant community of more than 60,000 residents located just southwest of Minneapolis. Eden Prairie has been nationally recognized as a great place to live, work and raise a family. Since 2006, Eden Prairie has been listed among MONEY Magazine’s 100 “Best Places to Live” in America, and in 2010 topped MONEY’s list as the Best Place to Live in America.
