EDEN PRAIRIE POLICE DEPARTMENT OFFICIAL STATEMENT

Eden Prairie, Minn. — Late yesterday afternoon the Eden Prairie Police Department was notified by School District Administrators of a suspicious communication involving Eden Prairie High School.

Eden Prairie Police are currently investigating the suspicious communication which involves Eden Prairie High School only; no other schools in the district are involved.

The focus of the investigation is on determining the validity and source of the suspicious communication.

The Police Department is working closely with school administration to complete the investigation as quickly as possible and ensure the safety of the Eden Prairie High School students and staff.

Because this is an active investigation, there are no further details that can be released at this time.

Classes will be in session at Eden Prairie High School tomorrow. For up to date information about the status of after school activities today visit the school district website edenpr.org.
